GERMANY REGRETS LUXBURG AFFAIR

Informs Argentine Diplomat Germany Disapproves Expressions

DESIRE FORMAL NOTE

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 17.—Dr. Luis B. Molina, the Argentine minister at Berlin, today informemd the Argentine foreign office by cable that the German government has expressed regrets over the actoins of Count Von Luxburg, the German minister to Argentina. Dr. Molina reported that Baron VonDem Bussche-Haddenhausen, under secretary of the German foreign office, had informed him that Germany disapproved absolutely of expressions used by Count Von Luxburg in his despatches.

The under secretary who acted for Dr. Von Kuehlmann, the German foreign secretary during his absence in Munich, asked the Argentine minister to request the Argentine government to notify Count Von Luxburg that the German government wished him to return immediately to Germany to explain the entire matter personally. Dr. Molina was asked to obtain a safe conduct for Count Von Luxburg.

May Sail September 28.

Count Von Luxburg today announced that he probably would sail on Sept. 28 for Bilboa, Spain, on a Spanish steamer.

Foreign Minister Pueyrredon after reading Dr. Molina's cablegram announced that he declined to accept the assurance of Baron Von Dem Bussche-Haddenhausen as a satisfactory settlement of the Luxburg incident, because it was merely the verbal statement of an under secretary. The Argentine foreign office is awaiting a formal note from the German government before closing the incident.

Attracts Wide Attention.

London, Sept. 17.—The Associated Press interview with Admiral Lindman, Swedish minister of foreign affairs, which was published in London today, attracted wide attention in official circles where astonishment was expressed that the minister had not yet made any similar expression of regret to the British government.

"We have been expecting a statement from Admiral Lindman along these lines," said a foreign office official, "but we expected that it would come in an official way. An expression of regret along these lines, if made in a formal way, would undoubtedly do much to smooth relations. But this far Sweden has not officially expressed any regret or offered any explanation. The foreign minister's statement to Associated Press covers the ground quite broadly and we should be very glad if he sees fit to repeat it in substance in a formal communication to us. Thus we would be very pleased to learn that Sweden 'deplores most sincerely that a practice which was exercised in absolutely good faith has been gravely abused;' that she is 'determined that the condition which led to this result shall be remedied' and that she has already given orders 'that this practice shall cease.'

Hope for Official Note.

"We hope that the Associated Press interview is the precursor of an official explanation which will form a basis for the removal of any cloud on the relations between Great Britain and Sweden."

In the statement referred to, Foreign Minister Lindman admitted that Sweden realized the seriousness of the situation created by the recent exposures at Washington regarding the transmission of German despatches by the Swedish legation and declared that the Swedish government was minded to do everything possible to settle the problem. He added that the transmission of despatches on behalf of Germany had been stopped absolutely; that the government had no knowledge of the nature of the despatches in question, that strong representations had been made to the German government on the abuse of the privilege and that conditions would be remedied.

Confer Regarding Agreement

Officials of the board conferred today with representatives of Seattle yards and union leaders regarding an agreement under which workers would be given higher pay with the government paying a proportion of the increase. Working out of details now awaits the arrival here of officials of a Seattle yard which already has granted the highest wage scale demanded by the workers and who will explain the operation of the system. The shipping board today called on the department of labor for assistance in settling the strikes and William Blackman, an experienced conciliator, was assigned to the work.

Disturbances Mark Strike

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 17—Disturbances in various parts of the city marked the strike begun today of approximately 25,000 metal trades mechanics in San Francisco and nearby cities. Numerous arrests were made. Most of the disturbances were in connection with the strike now in its sixth week of a majority of the employes of the United Railroads company and with whom the striking metal workers have expressed sympathy.

Today's strike caused a tie-up of $150,000,000 government shipbuilding and engine construction contracts. At first only the shipyards and a few large machine shops were affected but the strike spread quickly to other machine shops.

KUNZ DIED FROM INJURY TO SPINE

The jury in the inquest on the body of Louis Kunz convened Monday morning at Reynolds Undertaking parlors. After hearing the testimony of Dr. Carl Black, V. E. Muff, section foreman and Curtis Stadon, a section hand, the jury returned a verdict that death resulted from an inquiry to the spine and no blame was attached to the railroad company for the accident. Mr. Kunz sustained injuries when he fell from a hand car.

The testimony of Muff and Stadon told of the manner in which Kunz was injured. The testimony of Dr. Black told of the nature of the injuries. Dr. Black said that when Kunz arrived at the hospital his body was paralyzed to the hips. That his condition was such that he was placed in bed and given restoratives in the hope that he would be able to stand an operation but that he died suddenly a few hours later. It was the opinion of Dr. Black that death resulted from an injury to the spine between the shoulders.

BOMB DESTROYS U. S. CONSULAR AGENCY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Destruction of the American consular agency at Dunkirk, France, by a German bomb on Sept. 7 was reported today to the state department. The consular agent, Benjamin Morel, was uninjured and the archives of the consulate were saved.

The dispatch added no other details regarding the destruction. It is assumed bomb had been dropped from a German airplane as that section of France has frequently been made by enemy aircraft. Earlier in the war, however, Dunkirk was bombarded from a distance of about 20 miles by a huge German gun which had been brought to bear on the city. This battery soon was located by the French and concentrated attacks on it caused the Germans to remove it.

RUSS GOVERNMENT STRONGER THAN EVER

Gen. Alexieff Begins Re-organizing Army

Old Generals Will Give Place to New Ones—Confidence of Troops Being Restored by the Removal of Former Generals.

Washington, Sept. 17.—General Alexieff's appointment to supreme command of the Russian armies will be followed by a general reorganization in which old generals will give place to new ones.

First definite news of the reorganization was received at the Russian embassy today in despatches from Petrograd. Confidence of the troops is being restored by the removal of the former generals, the despatches said, and the situation is rapidly clearing.

The Korniloff uprising seems to have been quelled without bloodshed and Russian officials here say that the government is stronger than ever. The original trouble might have been avoided. Russians here feel, if the emissaries from Korniloff had been able to explain the situation clearly to the government and it is believed that a mistake was made in selecting the men to act as go-betweens between Korniloff and the government.

The Cossack movement is not considered serious any longer, although it is not over with. Strong discipline has been established in the army by General Alexieff and the spirit of the troops is said to be excellent.

GERMAN DEFENSE IN WEST WEAKER

Terrible Toll of Death Being Exacted From Enemy Having Its Effect

BRITISH SUPREME IN AIR

WITH THE BRITISH Armies in France and Belgium, Sept. 17.—By the Associated Press.—There must always be periods of "comparative" quiet, when big spectacular offensives are lacking on the great fighting fronts. The recent days have constituted one of these periods along the British lines in the western theater and to the outside world, reading the commander-in-chief's laconic "there is nothing of importance to report" or a brief account of seemingly inconsequential raids, it may appear that hostilities virtually have ceased.

Business of War Perpetual

But this conclusion is far from right for the grim business of war continues perpetually. Hourly the big British guns hurl their thousands of tons of metal, carrying death and destruction into the German defenses, day and night great squadrons of aviators guide their machines over the German lines and dump their cargoes of high explosives on important positions and continualy small bodies of British infantry are reaching out into the German trenches and snatching back prisoners after playing havoc with bombs among the dugouts and mortar emplacements.

Of course there is retaliation by the enemy but the alvantage rests with the entente allies in this constant hammering process. It is the steady dropping of water which is wearing away the stone.

The terrible toll of death being exacted from the enemy ranks by the artillery and the continual drainage of their war supplies by the destruction caused by shells and bombs are having their effect. The German wall of defense is still strong but it is weaker than it was, and sooner or later must crumble, if the allied method of wearing down is continued. It needs no military expert to figure this out. Every Tommy along the line is aware of it.

Three Successful Raids

Last night's infantry raids are examples of the work being done, much of which is never published to the outside world. English and Scottish regiments about midnight conducted three successful raids. East of Gavrelle several prisoners were taken, a large number of the enemy killed and five big dugouts were bombed to pieces and two saps destroyed. A similar process was achieved south of Arros, several dugouts being demolished and a number of trench mortar emplacements wrecked, besides other damage done. The British air service still maintains supremacy and the big raiding machines have been doing vast damage. One of the spectacular air incidents occurred yesterday, when a British plane dispersed two thousand enemy infantry by turning its machine guns on the men along one of the highways.

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

Expressions of regret over the telegrams sent by Count Von Luxburg, the German minister to Argentine to Berlin thru the Swedish minister at Buenos Aires, have been made to both Sweden and Argentina by the German government.

The under secretary of the Berlin foreign office has informed the Argentine minister to Berlin that Germany regrets the actions of Count Von Luxburg and disapproves entirely of the expressions used by him in the telegrams made public by the state department at Washington.

Argentine, it is announced by its foreign minister declined to accept the verbal assurances of an under-secretary of the German foreign office and waits the arrival of a formal note from Berlin before taking additional steps.

To Sweden, Germany has sent a note, unofficial reports say regretting highly the disagreeable issues raised by the Luxburg telegrams and thanking the Swedish government for transmitting the messages. No spectacular operation on a large scale is reported from belligerent capitals. On the Bainsizza plateau, northeast of Gorizia the Italians have repulsed successfully four attacks made by the Austro-Hungarians. In repelling the enemy efforts General Cadorna's men captured 73 prisoners. Increased artillery activity is reported from the Carnia sector of the Austro-Italian front which lies northwest of the Isonzo fighting zone.

Field Marshal Haig's campaign of attrition during the breathing spells between major operations continues. Raids at three points between Arras and St. Quentin the British entered the German trenches, inflicted casualties and destroyed trench mortor emplacements and the ammunition dumps. The artillery arm is active all along the western front in France, Berlin announced that the drumfire has increased to one of violent intensity.

French positions in the forest of Appremont have been attacked by the Germans who succeeded in entering a few elements from which however, they were quickly thrown out by the defenders.

FIND BODY OF WOMAN IN FLAT BATHROOM

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—In the bathroom of an unfurnished flat, in one of the better residence sections the police today found the body of a beautiful woman about 26 years old, expensively dressed. A tube led from her mouth to the gas fixture above, but the gas was not turned on. One of the woman's wrists had been almost severed with a razor which was found on a window sill in the parlor. The walls and the floor of the apartment were spattered with blood and there was a bucket of water with a sponge in it with which efforts apparently had been made to wipe up the stain. A complete trousseau, white satin gown and expensive underwear were found in a trunk in the flat. There was no furniture in the flat. The only identification possible was a postal card postmarked Decatur, Ill., and addressed to Miss Josephine Parker. It was signed Clara and said:

REPORTS GENERALLY GOOD HEALTH FOR NAVY

WOULD PROTECT CIVIL RIGHTS OF SOLDIERS

Legislation May Be Placed On Program for Present Session

Soldiers and Sailors' Civilian Rights Bill Already Has Been Introduced in Both Houses of Congress — Framed in General Crowder's Office.

Washington, Sept. 17.—Legislation to protect the civil and property rights of soldiers, in effect a moratorium for the duration of the war in behalf of men who are serving their country on the firing line, may be placed upon the administration's program for this session of congress as a necessary element of the raising of a citizen army.

"The soldiers and sailors' civil rights bill," to carry out this purpose already has been introduced in both houses, having been framed in the office of Judge Advocate General Crowder. Secretary Baker it was learned today has under consideration recommendations that the entire weight of administration influence be brought to bear to obtain early enactment of the measure. To save soldiers and sailors from all kinds of legal injustices during their absence from home the measure would enjoin the carrying out of certain civil court actions until after the close of the war and establish as a legal excuse for failure to carry out certain contracts the fact that a man is in the military service. It is proposed that creditors' suits against officers or men may be held up and judgment by default denied, the framers of the bill recognizing that a man in the army or navy would have no opportunity to make his defense in person or to arrange for its proper hearing thru counsel.

If such a judgment rested against a man at the time of his enlistment, the bill would prevent its execution thru the sale of his property during his absence.

Another element of protection the bill would accord to the fighting men would be as to his life insurance which would not lapse thru failure to make any payments. His property also would be protected from sale for taxes and in every other way which the experts of the war department have been able to devise all civil rights and interests of men in military service would be safeguarded.

AUTOS IN COLLISION NEAR FRANKLIN

Glaring Lights Responsible for Accident—Occupants of Cars Fortunate in Escaping Injury.

Mrs. Elmer Roberts received painful injuries and Mr. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Newton Woods, all of Franklin were badly shaken up Sunday evening when the Ford car in which they were riding collided head on with another car on the Modesto road south of Waverly.

The Franklin party were returning from a trip to Virden in Mr. Roberts' car. The men were riding in the front sat and the ladies in the back seat. South of Waverly they met a heavy car in which were five men. Because of the bright head lights it is probable that the drivers became confused and the cars met headon.

The radiator of Mr. Roberts' car was destroyed and the wind shield broken and the car otherwise damaged. Word was sent to Waverly and the car was taken to a garage in that city. The other car which contained a party of five young men from Virden who had been visiting in Waverly was not damaged materially and was able to proceed on its way.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Woods had been spending the day with relatives of Mrs. Roberts near Virden and were returning home. They consider themselves fortunate that the accident did not result more seriously.

BEGIN BUILDING FIVE MILES OF TRENCHES

FORT SHERIDAN, Ill., Sept. 17.—Construction of five miles of trenches, enough to hold an entire regiment, was begun here today by student officers in prosecution of Col. James A. Ryan's plan to make the camp here conform as nearly as possible to actual conditions on the battle field.

To add realism to the work Colonel Ryan has designated the Michigan regiment as the defenders of the fort and the Illinois regiment as the attackers. The latter retired today "somewhere near Milwaukee" and is preparing to battle its way into Fort Sheridan. As a first line of defense, the Michigan regiment has commenced to throw up its trenches over a five mile front and will meet the invaders there. Grenades, bombs, rifles, machine guns and wire entanglements will be used. Camp instructors will act as judges of the contest.

MARSHAL SPEAKS AT MASONIC MEETING

LIBERTY IS NOT LICENSE

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Vice-President Marshal speaking tonight at a Golden Jubilee celebration of Scottish Rite Masons urged a deeper sense of American obligation in the war. In belief that the United States could not become involved in European politics, he said, the question of dual citizenship was not raised until the war in spite of the tide of immigration.

"The years drew us closer and closer to Europe in the ties of commerce and in the friendly relations of travel. More and more we became a part of the world; and suddenly a mad monarch, drunk with military power and crazed with the idea that he was divinely ordained to rule the world, plunged Europe into a war so awful that all wars which had preceded it passed into insignificance.

Wilson Meant Real Democracy

"Still we stood by our ancient ideas of isolation till patience was exhausted, and there was nothing for self-respecting people to do if their republic was to be true to its traditions, but engage in the war on the side of democracy. Of course it was meant by the president when he spoke of 'making the world safe for Democracy,' of making it safe for real democracy. We all know that liberty is not license nor democracy demagoguey. We all know that the world cannot be made safe for murder and arson and pillage and anarchy and everything for which the syndicalist and the I. W. W.'s may stand and we know also that such things as these cannot be made safe for the world.

"Democracy means the rule of the people under whatever form of government they may choose to express it, but when once the rule of the people has been expressed thru their chosen representatives then—and particularly in the hour of war—free speech, free press and liberty of conscience do not justify criticism, for criticism, however unintentional, gives aid and comfort to the enemy.

Wants People to Have Liberty

"I want this war to end, but not until the people in every land shall possess the right to make peace and declare war either directly or thru their chosen representatives. I want blood and birth, social standing and educational qualifications and religious trend all to be forgotten in this new parliament of new men, this federation of the world

"I don't want entangling alliances with European nations. When we sit at the council table of the world, I trust we may do so as the representative of a newer and better isolation—an isolation of the spirit, free to say to the Germanic people 'have what government you please, but let us know that it is yours;' free to say to the oldest constitutional government, the British Empire, 'we have made this fight with you as our ally in the cause of democracy, but are not willing to change our systems.' The Windsor tie does not harmonize with the cut of your democracy."

REGRET INABILITY TO DENY ASSERTION

STOCKHOLM, Sept. 17.—At a great liberal meeting held here today a resolution proposed by Professor Eden, leader of the liberal party in the second chamber, was unanimously passed to the effect that the meeting expressed the deepest regret that the Swedish foreign office was not in a position to deny the assertion that it had forwarded cipher telegrams in ignorance of their contents, which contents when revealed awoke the just abhorence of all Swedes, and that such careless acts could happen.

The resolution vigorously demanded that the government immediately undertake all necessary measures to demonstrate indubitably to the Swedish people its determination to maintain towards all belligerents absolute neutrality.

BRITISH INDUSTRIES ACTIVE.

An official bulletin informs us that exports from the Bradford, England, consular district to the United States, in July, 1917, were about 8 per cent greater than in the corresponding month of 1916. England is keeping many of her industries in first class working condition notwithstanding the war.

THE DEBT TO THE FOREFATHERS.

A reading of the mortuary list at the meeting of the Portuguese Exile association in another column shows how one by one the founders of the Portuguese colony here are passing. There are few of them left and it is well, indeed, that the exile association was formed and thus from year to year attention is called to the lives and accomplishments of the exiles. The men and women who came to this country from Madeira for "conscience sake" were of strong character and hardy virtues. This community owes them much for many good influences of today were established here thru their coming in 1849.

MODESTY AMONG MEN.

There have been many notable services in Jacksonville in honor of deceased ministers but so far as we can remember there has never been before such a demonstration for a retiring Methodist superintendent as that given for Dr. F. A. McCarty Sunday night. If any proof was needed that this well balanced Methodist minister deserved the encomiums heaped upon him, it was found in the graceful speech in which he made plain his appreciation of the compliments paid him. He deftly swept them aside as personal tributes and accepted them as honoring the ministry. It is only the really big man who can be genuinely and sincerely modest.

PATTERNING AFTER PIKE COUNTY.

Postmaster General Burleson is quoted as having given his approval to a bill introduced in the house authorizing the motorizing of the postal service. It is proposed to use motor trucks on the routes in the vicinity of large cities to transport the great amount of parcel post packages. The bill may be necessary to authorize this service, but it is a fact that motorization i already in effect along some rural routes and to the great satisfaction of rural patrons. There is at least one Pike county rural carrier who travels his route in a 5 passenger Ford. He has plenty of room for parcel post matter and when the roads are at all good makes the rounds in less than half the time that he would with a horse drawn vehicle.

NO SUPERVISION OF WAR EXPENDITURES.

The disposition of Democratic leaders at Washington is firmly fixed against any general supervision of war expenditures by Congress. It is also opposed to any wide open investigation of the management of the war as the executive departments are now carrying it on. The episode of the defective cartridges sent to Pershing's men has been put under review; but great pains were taken to limit the inquiry, so far as the House is concerned, to that incident alone. This means that there will be more of such occurrences, that we shall have a series of scandals, that we shall go thru with a succession of single investigations. The better plan, the wiser course, the more effective method in all this is to establish a permanent committee, with power to co-operate—not after a mistake has been made, but to see that mistakes are not made.

A VETERAN REPUBLICAN.

Long time Republicans will learn with regret of the sudden death of William F. Stone, sergeant-at-arms of the national Republican committee. Mr. Stone has for many years been connected with the national Republican organization and has been appointed sergeant-at-arms term after term altho other officers of the organization changed. He had the preparatory work for national conventions so well in hand that the great value of his services was recognized by all party factions.

At national conventions Mr. Stone was not a conspicuous figure but it was because of his generalship and faculty for organization that it was possible for the business of the great convention to move smoothly and expeditiously. He was not charged with the political part of these conventions but with the physical, and the arrangements under his direction were always such that there was no chaos or confusion, which might easily have happened with a sergeant-at-arms in charge of less experience in preparing for assemblages of such large proportions.

SPEEDY SHIPS THE ANSWER TO SUBMARINES.

"Speed," says Lord Northcliffe in the September World's Work, is the surest safeguard against being hit by a torpedo. When the figures relating to losses are analyzed, it is seen immediately that the sinkings are in inverse ratio to the head of speed developed. Very slow vessels are so easy to hit that they should not be sent to sea at all. Vessels of ten to twelve knots speed have about 50 per cent chance of escaping. Fifteen knot boats are almost immune. It is rare, indeed, tho sometimes by ill-luck it does happen, that a ship able to steam at a speed greater than fifteen knots falls victim to a submarine.

"To build sailing ships or steamers that cannot do better than ten to twelve knots is to my mind madness. It is looking for trouble, and there is plenty about already.

"Some who defend the building of such ships suggest that they could secure themselves from harm by smoke screens. These may be extremely useful. The calculations to be made before the torpedo is discharged must be exact if a hit is to be registered. The hull of the target must be visible. The speed at which it is travelling must be ascertained. The direction of its course must be noted. Smoke screens hide the hull, dissemble the speed, and confuse the observer who seeks to establish the distance and direction of the object of attack. For use by faster ships, when they know submarines to be about, this form of camouflage is of great value. But a slow vessel would be obliged to envelop itself in smoke for days while it passed thru the danger zone. That does not seem to be a practicable plan."

THE NEED FOR CONGRESS.

Congress is planning to adjourn early in October and this program is likely to be carried out since President Wilson has no new legislation to present. The president is insistent that the soldiers insurance bill be passed but is said to consider no other legislation as imperative. Contrary to usual conditions, there are now some people who believe that congress should not hurry about adjournment. In fact, while they freely criticise congress from time to time for alleged dilatory tactics, they still hold the opinion that with matters of such vast importance likely to appear on the national horizon at any time, that it would be well to keep congress in session. President Wilson has a cabinet of loyal earnest men but some of them are not men of very large experience. This fact gives another reason why congress may be helpful.

The occasional demand for accounting of the expenditures of enormous funds placed in the hands of government officials will not be at all out of place. Such demands would not be a reflection on the integrity of the officials but would occasionally throw on the searchlight of publicity in a way which might do good and certainly do no harm. The very presence of congress might serve as a check on some unnecessary expenditures.

Meanwhile it is due to congress to say that with few exception the members have loyally given their support to the government in time of stress. Senators and congressmen have been accused of dilatory tactics but consideration of the measures which have been placed on the statute books will prove that a vast amount of very important legislation has been passed with less debate than has been had on half as many measures in former sessions.

AN OLD APPEAL.

One of the bravest and most gallant struggles for national liberty in all the history of the world was the war for the independence of the Netherlands against Phillip II of Spain. William of Orange—William the Silent—led his people thru years of war to ultimate victory, tho he did not live to see that great result. In unselfish devotion to his people and his country, in courage and ability, he stands in the annals of his country as Washington stands in ours. Of him it was said by Motley, the historian, "When he died the little children cried in the streets."

The great and powerful United States arrayed against Germany is in no such condition as was the Netherlands Confederacy arrayed against the power of Spain, yet the Prince of Orange's appeal to the Dutch people to give financial support to the cause of liberty possesses a timely interest when the United States Government is asking the American people to give their financial support to their Government in this war for liberty in the world.

The Prince of Orange in his address to the inhabitants of the Netherlands used these words:

"Let not a sum of gold be so dear to you, that for its sake you will sacrifice your lives, your wives, your children, and all your descendants, to the latest generations; that you will bring sin and shame upon yourselves, and destruction upon us who have so heartily striven to assist you. Think what scorn you will incur from foreign nations, what a crime you will commit against the Lord God, what a bloody yoke ye will impose forever upon yourselves and your children, if you now seek for subterfuges; if you now prevent us from taking the field with the troops which we have enlisted. On the other hand, what inexpressible benefits you will confer on your country, if you now help us to rescue that fatherland from the power of our enemies."

BIRTH REGISTRATION.

The women in charge of the work of emphasizing the need for correct and careful birth registration will be interested in the following statement recently sent from the office of the bureau of the census at Washington:

"Congratulations to Maryland, Virginia and Kentucky, the latest states to be admitted to the Registration Area for Births by the Director of the Census, Sam L. Rogers. The Registration Area for Births was established in 1915 aud was then composed of ten states and the District of Columbia, representing 10 per cent of the territorial extent of the United States but containing 31 per cent of the country's population. For this area the Bureau of the Census has recently issued its first annual report, entitled "Birth Statistics." As the area grows the annual reports will deal with the births in a constantly increasing portion of the country and will, therefore, become of constantly increasing interest and value.

"The outlook for a very rapid growth of this Registration Area for Births is so good that a word of cheer to the states outside should be given. The need of complete birth registration is recognized now as never before. The age of the soldier must be known, and so a new argument for birth registration comes to the United States. Since war was declared tests of the completeness of birth registration have been made by special agents of the Census Bureau in Virginia and Kentucky, and both these states secured a rating of over 90 per cent, which represents the degree of completeness required for admission to the area.

"Similar tests are now being made in Indiana and New Jersey, and before the year is over will be conducted in North Carolina, Ohio, Utah, and Wisconsin. Several other states are nearly ready to seek admission, and it is by no means a wild prediction that the Birth Registration Area within the next two years will be more than trebled in size and will contain over two-thirds of the population of the United States.

"One physician recently became so thoroly aroused to the desirability of recording births that he reported to the local registrar 450 births which had occurred in his practice since 1900. Parents and physicians everywhere are awakening to the importance of this matter and the fashion now is to register baby's birth."

Rippling Rhymes
By WALT MASON

THE ARGUING MAN

I hired a man to work around, to groom the cow and feed the snakes, and after seven weeks I found he wasn't worth a brace of shakes. I'd say, "Oh, James, I wish you'd start and paint the fence dark blue and pink." He'd say, "Have some respect for Art! That combination's rank, I think. If I should paint it red and green, the colors nicely would combine, and every passer-by, I ween, would cry, 'Oh, chee! That fence is fine!'" Then I'd reply, "I have the mon to have that fence the way I wish; my way I'll surely have it done, or you will lose your job, odsfish." Then he would quote a lot of jays, old Rembrandt, Titian and that mob, to show that artist folk would raise a clamor o'er the measly job. So we would stand in joint debate, until the sinking of the sun, and when the daylight pulled its freight there was no job of painting done. Now, James is poor, and always was, and always will be till he dies; he labors too much with his jaws to satisfy employing guys. My way of doing things is punk, I'm always in the wrong, I know; but when for toil I pay the plunk, I guess my way will have to go.

BOARD ISSUES CALL FOR FORTY-EIGHT MEN

Will Constitute Forty Percent of County's Quota—The Unmarried Chosen for This Quota—Seven Married Men Named As Alternates.

The Morgan county local board yesterday posted official notice of the names of the 48 men who will leave Jacksonville Saturday, Sept. 22, for Camp Taylor, Ky. These men constitute 40 per cent of the county quota. All of the men named were unmarried on the date they were passed as qualified for military service. With this list in force all of the single men who have been certified back to the local board have been called.

In addition to the 48 men mentioned, the board has summoned seven married men as alternates. The first three of the seven filed claim before the district board for exemption and these claims were disallowed. Subsequently the three men asked the local board to be included in the 40 per cent. The other four married men named as alternates made no claim for exemption. Should any of the 48 fail to report in accordance with the board's order the vacancies thus created will be filled from the alternates. The local board had a conference with the district board Sunday on various matters, and President Weir said yesterday that the same treatment that is accorded selected men in other counties will be accorded men in Morgan county so far as is possible in accordance with the rulings of the department. As few married men as possible will be sent into the army service.

The order for mobilization signed by Miller Weir, president, and W. N. Hairgrove, secretary, sets forth that the men whose names have been given must report by 4 p. m. Friday, Sept. 21, and from that hour the men are in the military service of the U. S. and subject to military law. Failure or unpunctuality in reporting constitutes a serious military offense. The posting of the list by the local board constitutes notice to the persons named.

IN OLD MISSOURI

Read This Twice! Only $12,000

This farm I have been laying for. I have got to break the ice in Missouri. Do you know what Shelby county is? If not, look it up.

Here is the firs toffer to some client who wants a bargain and is absolutely a snap. Remember your railroad fare is refunded if propositions made by me are not as represented.

132 acres of land situated 5½ miles of Shelbyville, the county seat with house of 6 large rooms, 2 full stories, 3 porches, fine bored well, 2 cisterns, 6 acres timber and blue grass pasture with fine spring. All woven wire fenced and cross fenced with red cedar corner and gate posts set in cement, 18 irons and Kant-Sag gates on farm, clover, wheat, corn and oats raised this year, 35 acres in timothy and clover. Plenty of fruit for family use, 2 larfie barns, one 40x52 for cattle ,one 24x36 horse barn, holds 75 tons of hay, granary 14x18, 4 bins, with galvanized roof and large wagon shed on the side. Too lhouse 18x36 with galvanized roof. New wood and smokehouse combined, double hen house, 3 concrete watering tanks, piped.

Farm is gently rolling, 25 acres bottom land never known to overflow. 5¾ miles to one of the finest German churches in Missouri. One mile to Baptist church and 2 different schools. R. F. D. passes door.

This farm was bought and improved during the last 7 years . Reason of fear that property will be abused. There is a loan of $3,500 held by the for selling, present owner lost a limb and doesn't want to rent on account Illinois State Bank of Quincy and the low price is $12,000. Now this farm is in a high state of cultivation and only $1.37 R. R. fare from Quincy.

Who will be interested in trying to purchase this proposition?

I have a few Adams Co., Ill., cheap farms, improved, at prices ranging from $65 to $85. These farms are some 10 and 12 miles from R. R. Some better located nearer at $100 to $150. Also some good bottom farms, some tiled at prices of $75 to $150. Farms run in sizes as follows: 80, 125, 150, 170, 200, 250 to 320 acres. These are well located, close to school and good towns. Have sold some 19 farms since June 15th. Why not buy a farm? Others are buying. Some 3400 acres in the above named farms sold. Write me or wire me you are coming to see me.

The parlors of the church were decorated with the flowers of the season and American flags. About thirty-five young people were present. STATE'S CONSTITUTION NEEDS ARE OUTLINED

Public Library Meeting Attended by Interested Audience—Reforms are Halted Because of Outgrown Constitution—Citizens in Brief Addresses Emphasize Needs.

Mrs. George Thomas Palmer of Springfield gave a very interesting lecture at the public library Monday evening on the subject of "The New Constitution." Hon. John J. Reeve presided and introduced Mrs. Palmer. The speaker is thoroly versed on the question of proposed new state laws and believes that in this way only will suffrage be granted to the women of the state. She brought out the fact that should universal suffrage be granted by congress at once, that the law would not go into effect until after it had been ratified by thirty-six states, and there is no doubt but that this would be slow in coming, as shown by the action of the voters of Maine, where they defeated woman suffrage for the second time just a few months ago. The action of a few women in picketing the White House was an influence in this result. The speaker made it plain that the majority of the women of the county do not stand back of the acts of the Congressional Union, but on the other hand are very much ashamed of the actions of the women belonging.

Outstripped by Other tSates

Of all the states in the union, Illinois is the most hampered and restricted by its constitution, adopted 4 years ago, and still but little changed. While the other states have been progressing by bringing their fundamental law up to modern standards, Illinois has lagged, and now is far behind her sister commonwealths. Both friends and foes of a constitutional convention agree on this—that the Illinois constitution is rigid and repressive.

Among the constitutional changes that have been urged for many years are the following: shorter ballot; reorganization of the judiciary system; home rule for cities and counties in local matters; reorganigation of executive departments; permissable consolidation of over-lapping local governments; initiative and referendum; tax reform; woman suffrage, all cities; elasticity of amendment; and reform of jury system.

While some of these propositions, with others that might be mentioned are of disputed value, most of them, it is generally agreed, are desired by a great majority of the people.

Because of present constitutional provisions there have been only two amendments adopted since 1899.

Reforms Halted

In recent years there has been almost a complete halt in constitutional reform, partly—but only in part—because of warring interests at Springfield. The legislature has been generally deadlocked. So long as over one-third of the membership of either house stood out for one proposition, none other could be submitted.

Illinois would secure its needed reforms more quickly by a constitutional convention than it possibly could in any other way.

Both the Republican and Democratic state platforms contain strong declarations in favor of holding a convention. Such action is necessary to produce a balanced, consistent and comprehensive constitution, suited to our present needs and expressive of our modern conceptions. Merely broadening the amending clause would not only postpone many changes that are urgently needed, but would result in piecemeal changes with danger of unforseen contradictions.

Mrs. Palmer held the attention of her audience at all times during the discourse and is indeed a speaker of ability. At the conclusion of her remarks Mr. Reeve, called on several of those present for remarks.

The Question of Taxes

State's Atorney Carl E. Robinson: "I was very much interested in what the speaker had to say on the new constitution. It has occurred to me that this document, like many other things, has worn out, has served its day of usefulness. Since 1870, when this constitution was framed, there have been many industrial developments. The state is not very much as it was forty-seven years ago. Recently I have been reading up a little in regard to our taxation system, and the subject of taxes in general. And I find some very amazing things. When this present constitution was adopted in 1870 there were few large personal property holders, a few large corporations and many large real property holders, many large land owners. Today the exact opposite is true. There are many large corporations and few large land owners. Another reason that I favor a new constitution is because in this way we will give the women of the state the power of the ballot. The present constitution is not adapted to the needs of the state. We are living in a different age, we are a different people, life is different, than it was at the time the present state constitution was tdopted."

Some Unchanging Principles

Rev. Myron L. Pontius: "I try to be interested in many affairs outside of the church but this evening I would rather pray than talk on the subject of a new constitution. I have little to say except to emphasize what others have said upon this subject. We are living today in one of the most progressive ages in history. Think what has happened in the last fifty years in our social, industrial and religious life. While I am in favor of a new constitution there are certain things to be safeguarded, certain things that cannot all be changed. Some of these are that all men have inalienable rights. Another is that all men are created equal, while this may not apply socially or as to their abilities, yet it does so far as their inalienable rights are concerned. Another thing that cannot be altered in the new constitution is the fact that all men have a right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. I believe that the ten years following this great war the world democracies will move forward one hundred years. I believe that the new constitution will assist us to procure and maintain temperance measures and that the rights of women will be safeguarded. I am heartily in favor of a new state constitution."

Home Rule for Cities

Mayor H. J. Rodgers: "I recently spent quite a little time in Springfield in the interest of cities. Under the present constitution all cities are treated alike as to taxation and in other ways, and the abilities of the various cities are limited. In my opinion the majority of any city should say what that city should do in matters of home government and that the rest of the state has nothing whatever to do with the cities own affairs. Our cities are our homes and the change contemplated in the new constitution would enable the different cities to manage their own governmental affairs as each thought best. I am in favor of woman suffrage and a new constitution."

The Peril of Chicago

H. H. Bancroft: "I am heartily in favor of a new constitution and have been for some time. I take this stand in spite of the fact that history tells us that had the proposed constitutional convention of 1820 been held that Illinois would have been a slave state instead of a free state. Happily that convention did not assemble. I am for a constitution that will stamp out the minority representation evil and will grant us woman suffrage. I believe that if women are qualified and capable of voting for the president of the United tSates that they are capable of voting for the governor and the legislative bodies of their own state. Some time ago in talking with ex-Speaker Shurtleff he stated that at the present time Chicago has nineteen senatorial districts out of the fifty-two at Springfield and added that if at any time Cook county was ever able to be represented by twenty-six districts that they would have absolute control. A new constitution would minimize this danger and save Chicago from herself."

A Case in Point

Mr. Reeve in his closing remarks mentioned one provision in the present state law which provides a uniform speed for a motor vehicle of not more than ten miles per hour in any city within the business district. He stated that he was in Chicago Sunday and that he was told there that if automobiles did not travel more than twenty miles an hour they would get run over. If autos observed this state law in Chicago business would be paralyzed by slowly moving traffic. This is merely one instance to show that laws do not keep up to the speed of events.

PASSING OF JUDGE A. A. PAXSON

(By His Classmate, Ensley Moore.)

Friends will hear with regret that Judge A. A. Paxson, of St. Louis, Mo., has passed on ahead. He lived here for some years, and was identified with people and things here for a longer time.

Alfred Allen Paxson was born in Winchester, Ill., Dec. 10, 1844, and passed away at his home in St. Louis last Friday, September 14, 1917. He was the second son of Stephen and Mary (Lester) Paxson, his father being one of the greatest Sunday school Missionaries of the West, and the country. "Father" Paxson, as he was known by his Sunday school associates, was a remarkable man, and so known thru this section of the old West. He died April 22, 1881, at the age of 73 years, and had been the means of gathering many thousands of the young people of the country into Sabbath schools. Mr. Paxson's son, Rev. Wm. P. Paxson was also a great Sunday school organizer, and he passed away some years ago. Another son of "Father" Paxson, and the youngest, was the Rev. Cory E. Paxson, now of St. Louis, Mo. The daughters of Mr. Paxson were three, Mary Hornback, the only one living, now in Nebraska; Belle Paxson Drury, of the Orleans neighborhood, Morgan county, Ill., and Anna, the youngest of the girls.

Alfred A. Paxson attended the West District school here, then taught in Mason City, Ill., during the spring of 1864. He entered the Freshman class of Illinois College in the Fall of 1864, and was graduated, with the valedictory in June, 1868. He was a member of Phi Alpha society, in which he served as librarian, treasurer, corresponding secretary, and president. He was graduated from the law department of Washington University, St. Louis, with the valedictory, in 1870, and that year delivered the address historical of Phi Alpha society here. He entered the office of Judge H. E. Dummer, here, and was admitted to the bar February 22, 1871. He then went to Rockwall, Texas, to practice his profession, and was elected County Superintendent of Schools there, in 1874. He soon returned to St. Louis, Mo., where he has been engaged in professional work ever since. There he took a considerable part in politics, being a Democrat, and became a judge of the St. Louis Court of Criminal Correction for a time.

Judge Paxson was married, in 1873, to Miss Julia L. Hart, of St. Louis, by whom he had four children, now all grown. Two sons are prominent business men in the state of Nebraska, and the daughters are at home with their mother.

Judge Paxson was a fine Bible scholar, and, of late years, has often filled pulpits, temporarily vacant, when called upon to do so.

An incident which occurred in 1912, illustrates a characteristic of Mr. Paxson's life. He was invited, with the other members of the class of 1868, to attend a dinner party. Commencement time, for the class at the home of the writer. Paxson had his grip with him and went to his office just before time to leave St. Louis, expecting to come up here on the afternoon train. He had a case which he thought he could get the opposing counsel to postpone, to accommodate him. The other fellows, seeing he was anxious to come, thought they could squeeze a compromise out of him, and refused to postpone. But they mis-calculated their chances, and Paxson "stayed with them," giving up the anticipated meeting with his classmates. My informant thinks that Judge Paxson won his case.

At the time of that meeting all of the class were living, altho not all were able to be here. Since then Jas. E. Munroe, of Chicago, Prof. R. H. Beggs, of Denver, Colorado, Geo. C. Barber of Prague, Oklahoma, and now A. A. Paxson, have finished their earthly courses. All ran well, all were prominent in their communities, all more or less successful.

In college Mr. Paxson was known as "Fred" or "Pax," and now another of the boys of '68 is gone!

AN INVITATION TO WOMEN

Women are invited to visit the laboratory of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medical Co., at Lynn, Mass., and see for themselves with what accuracy, skill and cleanliness this wonderful remedy for women's ailments is prepared. Over 350,000 pounds of roots and herbs are used annually in making this famous medicine. The great bins of herbs, the huge tanks filled with the medicine ready to be bottled, and the bottling room where it is put up and labelled for the market, cannot help but impress them with the reliability of this good, old-fashioned root and herb remedy, which for the past forty years has been so successful in the home treatment of female ills.—Adv.

They resided on a farm near Markham for many years. About fifteen years ago Mr. Headen retired from active farming and moved to Jacksonville where the family has since resided. MARRID MEN NOW TAKEN AS RECRUITS

ARE GIVEN OPPORTUNITY TO VOLUNTEER.

Local Recruiting Officer Receives Authority Monday to Accept Enlistments in Certain Branches of Service of Married Men Having No One Dependent on Them For Support.

Sergeant Stirling, U. S. A. Army recruiting officer, has returned to his office at the Jacksonville post office building, after a four day business trip to Virginia. He failed to get a single recruit in the Cass county town.

Sergeant Stirling received word Monday that he will soon have an assistant at the local office in the person of Sergeant Schmal, who is now on his way to Jacksonville.

The two officers it seems will be able to handle all the applicants for the army altho now that new regulations have been received stating that married men can volunteer, the recruiting is expected to make a considerable increase over the records of the past month.

The following communication sent out by the war department from the adjutant general's office to all officers of the general recruiting service is in response to inquiries of the various staffs corps and departments as to the enlistment of married men whose wives or families are not dependent upon them for support. The following replies quoted below have been received:

Officers Express Opinions

From the office of the Quartermaster General: "There is no objection to the enlistment in the Quartermaster's Corps of married men whose wives or families are not dependent on them for support."

From the office of the Chief of Engineers: "I can see no objection to the enlistment in any grade whatsoever of married men whose wives or families are not dependent on them for support."

From the office of the Chief Signal Officer: "Married men are desired for enlistments in the Signal Corps (including aviation section), only when they possess qualifications of special value to that corps, and can submit proper evidence of non-dependence of all members of their families together with waivers of dependency signed by their wives."

From the office of the Chief of Ordnance: "It is believed that for work in the ordnance department there is no reason for not enlisting married men whose wives and families are not dependent upon them for support."

From the office of the Surgeon General: "There is no objection to the enlistment of married men in the enlisted force of the Medical Department, whose wives or families are not dependent upon them for support, provided no special consideration is claimed on account of their conjugal condition."

Unskilled laborers, staff departments, may be accepted for the following: Supply companies, Q. M. D. National Army; Six Regiments Engineers, National Army; Medical Department, National Army.

Department Communication.

"Referring to previous letter authorizing aceptances for six regiments of National Army of Engineers: the 23rd regiment, Highway Regiment, includes two quarry companies and one mining company, therefore urge all sorts of miners to enlist in that regiment, in addition to mechanics and men of other occupations. The 25th regiment, Construction Engineers, includes one mapping company and one camouflage company, therefore, urge civil engineers, men familiar with surveying and map-making, landscape gardeners, and artists to enlist in that regiment.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The special service at First Baptist church Sunday evening was largely attended. It was the second in a series of special Sunday evening meetings planned by Dr. A. A. Todd, the pastor, and was a musical program. Brief remarks were made on a number of well known songs and their writers, the first being a short sketch of Miss Charlotte Elliott, the author of "Just as I am Without one Plea." In this talk the pastor explained how it came that this famous song was written. Next came a biographical sketch of Thomas Kerr, D. D., the author of the "Doxology," followed by the singing of the doxology by the choir. A short sketch of Isaac Watts, D. D., was then given, and the choir sang "Alas and Did My Savior Bleed." The final sketch was one of Rev. A. M. Toplady, followed by the singing of "Rock of Ages."

The choir then gave a special selection, and Mrs. Thomas Harber sang a solo, "Homeland." The service was one of special interest and inspiration. An address on "Life and Character of Joseph" will be given next Sunday by the pastor.

DEPARTMENT REPORTS AT COUNCIL SESSION

Only routine business occupied the attention of the city council at the regular session Monday morning. All members were present with Mayor Rodgers presiding. The minutes of the last regular and adjourned session were read and approved.

Under the reports of departments Commissioner Martin said that word received from Chief of Police George P. Davis who is at Excelsior Springs, Mo., was that he is improving in a gratifying manner.

Commissioner Vasconcellos reported that one of the pumps at the North End pumping station was out of commission on account of a broken cog wheel. The repairs were being made and it was hoped to have the pump in running order some time during the day. The commissioner also reported that another test would be made today. The placing of concrete valve boxes in various streets also was reported.

Mayor Rodgers reported that the paving work was progressing in a satisfactory manner. He said that the Railway company would have a number of dump cars here this week which would enable them to make greater progress with their work.

Chambers Street Sidewalks.

William Muehlhausen and James Trahey were present and addressed the council relative to sidewalks in East Chambers street. Mr. Muehlhausen told the council that he thought sidewalks should be laid on both sides of the street. The present ordinance calls for a walk on the north side of the street between Clay avenue and Hardin avenue, whereas most of the residences are on the south side of the street.

James Trahey also thought that a walk should be built on the south side of the street. Mr. Trahey was of the opinion that after the walks were built that the street should be improved by grading or if necessary a pavement should be laid. He said he was in favor of public improvements and was willing to pay his part.

It was pointed out that it would be impossible to embody the south side of the street in the present ordinance but that it could be taken up in another ordinance.

The council then indulged in an informal discussion of a number of matters. Among them was the paving of the alleys in the fire limits which was brought to the attention of the council by Commissioner Widmayer. At the conclusion of this discussion the council adjourned.

OBITUARY OF D. W. RAWLINGS

The following obituary of Daniel W. Rawlings was written by the Journal by the rector of the Episcopal church at St. Joseph, Michigan:

Daniel W. Rawlings, for six years a highly respected and beloved resident of Berrien county, Michigan, fell asleep at his home in Lincoln township at 6 o'clock Sunday evening, Sept. 9. He had been suffering for more than a year from hardening of the arteries, but the end came suddenly at last with several agonizing attacks of angina pectoris beginning Saturday night.

Mr. Rawlings was born in Jacksonville, Illinois, Feb. 2, 1842. There he spent the greater part of his life as a prosperous and honored merchant. Thither he brought as his bride, Miss Fanny Garland of Springfield, whom he married Jan. 12, 1864. Six years ago Mr. and Mrs. Rawlings came to live near their daughter in Lincoln township. Five children were born to them, three of whom died in infancy. Mrs. Frank Cupp, their daughter, died two years ago. Dr. Daniel W. Rawlings, Jr., of Kansas City and six grandchildren survive.

Mr. Rawlings was a Christian gentleman of lovable personality and high character, a loyal and devout member of the Episcopal church, a warm-hearted, cheery and helpful friend.

The funeral was held at St. Paul's Memorial church, St. Joseph, the rector, the Rev. F. O. Granniss officiating. The burial was in River-View cemetery. Many friends sorrow with Mrs. Rawlings and the relatives in their bereavement.

He expects to return Thursday to Jacksonville and will then be busy preparing the forty-eight men who are to leave for Camp Taylor Saturday.

Hugh P. Green and Everett E. Whisler have been reported back to the local board by the district board at Springfield as being certified for military service.

E. E. Crabtree and C. A. Johnson left yesterday for Quincy to attend the meeting of the State Bankers association.

CLASS FOR BEGINNERS IN VIOLIN AT COLLEGE OF MUSIC

The College of Music this year offers unusual opportunities to beginners in Violin. To children under twelve years of age a special rate is made which includes one private lesson and one class lesson each week. The class work consists of ear-training, rythm and notation and later will include easy ensemble playing. The larger conservatories are continually laying more stress on such work. It is seldom, however, that beginners are fortunate enough to have work with the head of the department. The College of Music is able to offer this opportunity from the fact that Miss Moore gives her entire time to the Violin Department. Patrons of the College will appreciate the advantage of study that may be continuous with a resident teacher. Miss Moore has proved herself a teacher of unusual ability, combining wide experience with broad training and engaging personality.

C. H. Wade of Riggston traveled to the city on business yesterday.

DAVID WARFIELD WILL COME TO THE GRAND

Manager Harold Johnson has announced a partial list of the bookings of the Grand Opera House for the season of 1917-18. Tho the picture business has made large inroads on the legitimate drama there are still many nigh class attractions and good players on the speaking stage. Of these Mr. Johnson has made especial effort to get the best for his patrons.

David Warfield, without doubt America's best actor of the present day and a worthy successor of Joseph Jefferson, Sol Smith Russel and other players of a decade ago, is booked for October 1. Mr. Warfield is a wonderful actor. He will be seen here in the best play that he has ever portrayed, "The Music Master."

On October 19 Sarah Bernhardt is announced. Tho the Divine Sarah is long past her prime yet her art is so great that it will still be able to thrill her hearers. Bernhardt is probably the greatest emotional actress of all time.

Among other attractions are the following which will prove well worth while:

Jan. 21.—Charlotte Greenwood and the New York cast in "So Long Letty."

Nov. 28.—The musical comedy success, "Katrinka," which has been playing with wonderful success in New York for several months.

Nov. 19.—The "Bird of Paradise," with a star cast.

Manager Johnson will also continue to furnish the best in pictures. He has Annette Kellerman in "A Daughter of the Gods," booked for November 23-24.

PREPARE FOR OLDER BOYS' CONFERENCE

Meeting in November Expected to Bring Several Hundred Young Visitors—State Y. M. C. A. Officials Here to Discuss Plans.

Last evening at the Y. M. C. A. building an enthusiastic meeting was held to make initial preparation for the older boys' conference to be held in this city Nov. 30-Dec. 2. In addition to a goodly number of local representatives there were present F. M. Deerhake of Chicago, an assistant state secretary Y. M. C. A.; E. W. Wolcott, boys' secretary, the State Association of Young Men's Christian Associations of Illinois, Chicago; and J. H. Hauberg, Rock Island, state Sunday school worker. A fine supper was prepared and admirably served by ladies of Brooklyn church. Rev. A. A. Todd said grace, and after the supper had been enjoyed business followed.

It was carefully explained that this was a general movement calling for the attendance of boys from 15 to 21 years of age from all parts of the state. The delegates are not confined to any particular organization but are selected from all ranks and classes, Sunday schools, Y. M. C. A.s, churches and all sources, boys who will attend and try to gather something good, some noble impulse to acquire and take home the inspiration and pass it on.

The Call of the World Need

The theme of the convention is to be the call of the world need and the object will be to sow good seed hoping for a great harvest. The first gathering had 135 and the last more than 700 and this city may be called on to entertain as many. The desire will be to get them entertained in homes where they will have lodging and breakfast and dinner Sunday. It will be all important to have the boys come with good leaders to guide them and be responsible for them while in the city. The meeting at Galesburg last year was a grand affair. The lives of many boys were transformed and made better. The boys come with college yells, genuine boy hilarity and jolly good times yet all the time Christ is held uppermost before all. It will be a grand uplift for the boys and those whom they will meet at home.

Mr. Wolcott said he came from Sioux City, Iowa, a commercial center, and when the matter of haying the Iowa state convention there many expressed grave doubts but it was put up to the business men that the boys were sons of their customers and the convention met and so great was the success that when told the convention would have to go to some other place next year many business men were deeply disappointed. In fact, there was too much generosity and offer of entertainment for the boys were not to be attracted from the main purpose of the gathering. The right kind of an environment must surround the boys and then you may expect good results. It is hoped that good impressions will be made in the homes where the boys are entertained. To carry through this enterprise will take time, hard work and money.

Local Committees Needed

Mr. Deerhake said it is all important to have the right viewpoint in the community and much local machinery will be necessary. You need a general executive committee having the responsibility with power to appoint other committees. You want an entertainment committee to secure good homes for the boys and a hotel where the general officers may lodge so as to be together for conference. The delegates are expected to arrive Friday morning, Nov. 30, and leave Sunday night or Monday morning. The delegates should be met at the trains and receive all needed attention and courtesy. A finance committee which will underwrite $240 to $300 for expenses. A registration committee to receive the delegates and assign them to their places of abode; a committee to look after places of meeting. A banquet committee which is all important as that is a grand feature of the affair, and, if possible should be Saturday night; an entertainment committee to show the boys around Saturday afternoon when they may see the attractions of the city itself. A decoration committee to see that places of meeting are suitably adorned. A local program committee to arrange for music, local speakers and the like. A publicity committee to see that suitable information beforehand is supplied and the proceedings of the convention properly reported.

After considerable informal discussion it seemed to be the sense of the meeting that an executive committee should be selected and various ways of doing this were suggested till finally S. W. Nichols moved, seconded by Thomas V. Hopper, that the following named gentlemen be the executive committee to have charge of the entire affair with power to appoint all sub-committees:

Mayor H. J. Rodgers, chairman, representing the city council; A. C. Metcalf, representing the board of education; J. J. Reeve, representing the chamber of commerce; T. M. Tomlinson, representing the superintendents of Sunday schools; C. L. DePew, representing the Morgan County Sunday School association; Rev. W. W. Theobold, representing the Ministerial association; J. S. Findley, representing the Y. M .C. A.

The meeting closed with prayer by Rev. W. W. Theobold.

R. E. HARMON WILL BE ILLINOIS COLLEGE COACH

Secured to Succeed His Brother Capt. W. T. Harmon—Graduated in 1905 and Has Since Been in Athletic Work.

Robert E. Harmon, former football star at Illinois college was announced yesterday by President Rammelkamp as coach and athletic instructor at Illinois college. Mr. Harmon succeeds his brother, W. T. Harmon, who is now a captain in the new National Army stationed at Camp Grant.

R. E. Harmon, or "Red," as he was affectionately known by every rooter of old Illinois, was one of the best football players ever turned out from the school. He graduated in the class of 1905. During his college career he played four years of football and was a member of some of the greatest teams that Illinois ever boasted. Harmon was a star at end and after graduating he attended Creighton niversity at Omaha.

Experienced in Coaching

After leaving school Mr. Harmon began coaching and nas met with great success. Among the schools where he coached football and baseball teams are, Loyola University, Chicago, Butte, Mont., high school and Gonzada University, Spokane, Wash., and the Agricultural college of the University of California. He spent three years at the last named institution and had one of the best teams on the Pacific coast only losing one game last season.

The war has turned athletics upside down in the smaller colleges and in fact the large universities. The government has advocated that all schools maintain athletics but it is difficult to do with all of the students entering the service. It is understood that Millikin, Eastern Normal, Carthage and Wesleyan will put football teams in the field. With Illinois also in there should be some interesting games, tho the class of football probably will not be as fast as for the past few years.

Nem Men in Team

Coach Harmon will have a problem confronting him in the building of a team. It is understood that only two or three of last years team are in school. However, there are some good men entering who were stars on high school teams and with this material and some from the lower classes in college which did not try for the team in the past on account of competition, Coach Harmon will endeavor to develop a team that will uphold the traditions of Illinois college.

At the present time Coach Harmon is in North Carolina. He has wired President Rammelkamp that he will be here next Wednesday and to have all candidates on the field in uniform that afternoon to begin work.

WILL GO TO NORTHWESTERN.

John E. Kirkpatrick, son of Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick, has gone to Evanston to enter Northwestern University. His chief reason for going up there was the fact that Rev. J. L. Anderson, pastor of the Sheridan Road church and wife, sister of Mr. Kirkpatrick, desired to have the young man a member of their family. The young man made a record which was fine in Illinois college and his friends regret not to have him with them here.

PORTUGUESE EXILES RECALL PAST DAYS

Anniversary Observed at Northminster Church with Address by Rev. W. E. Spoonts—Mortuary Record Prepared by J. N. Joaquin.

Sunday was rally day and the anniversary of the Portuguese Exile association was observed at Northminster church and very large audiences were present. The pastor, Rev. W. E. Spoonts, gave a talk on the coming of the Portuguese people to Illinois, reviewing various interesting facts of church and personal history. He told of the organization of the church in 1845 on the Island of Madeira and then related the events which led up to August, 1849, when the exiles came from their home in Madeira to Jacksonville. It was in the year following, that is, in 1850, that the church was organized here, as a result of which Northminster is now in existence.

In Maderia the church leader was the Scotch physician, Dr. Robert E. Kalley, and his work was such on the island and here that his memory has ever been held in reverence by the Portuguese people. The church which he organized had the honor of being the first Portuguese protestant church in the world. Rev. Mr. Spoonts emphasized the splendid characteristics of the exiles and dwelt upon the noble heritage they had bequeathed to the Portuguese people of the present day. He declared that the younger generation have high ideals to live up to if they by any means approach the faithfulness and loyalty of their forefathers.

Exile Association Officers

As mentioned, the attendance at the service was large, the auditorium being filled to overflowing. Special provision had been made for bringing the aged and for those unable to walk automobiles or other conveyances were provided. As a part of the service John N. Joaquin as secretary of the exiles' association reported the deaths which have occurred during the last two years from August 23, 1915, to August 23, 1917. Because of a sad happening in Mr. Joaquin's own family no report was made in 1916, so that his report Sunday covered the two years. By unanimous vote the officers of the association were re-elected. They are:

President—E. M .Vasconcellos.
Secretary—John N. Joaquin.
Treasurer—A. P. Vasconcellos.

Mr. Vasconcellos and Mr. Joaquin have served as officers continuously for twenty-one years, as they were elected to their present positions when the association was formed in August, 1896. SPEAK WORDS OF PRAISE FOR DR. F. A. M'CARTY

NOTABLE FAREWELL SERVICE HELD AT CENTENARY CHURCH

Great Audience Gathered There Sunday Night to Pay Tribute to Minister Soon to Leave—Praised Because He Has Stepped Across Denominational Lines To Be a Community Influence — Resolutions Adopted by Ministers and Audience.

That was a notable gathering at Centenary church Sunday night when the people of all denominations and some of no denomination gathered to pay their tribute to Dr. F. A. McCarty who is to leave this week for Quincy to become pastor of Vermont Street church. The pastors of practically all of the protestant churches of the city dismissed their evening services in order to take part in this farewell for the popular Methodist minister who has been a resident here for ten years. The church was filled with Dr. McCarty's friends and at the close of the service all by a rising vote endorsed the resolutions which Dr. Harker presented signed by the ministers of the city.

Rev. W. W. Theobold, president of the Ministerial Association, presided. The vast audience was truly imposing and when the array of ministers accompanied by E. E. Crabtree, who was to speak, filed up the aisle the imposing array caused a profound sensation. The music through out was fully in keeping with the occasion and was very fine both organist and singers doing their part admirably.

Rev. E. B. Landis, pastor of Westminster church, offered the invocation and Rev. J. F. Langton, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, read the scripture lesson from the 20th chapter of Acts, the touching farewell of Paul to the elders of the church at Ephesus. Many of the words of the great apostle were applicable:

"I have not shunned to declare unto you the counsel of God."

"I have coveted no man's silver or gold or apparel."

"I have showed you all things how that so laboring ye ought to support the weak and to remember the words of our Lord Jesus; how he said, it is more blessed to give than to receive."

One verse, of course, didn't apply. It was:

"For I know this; that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you not sparing the flock."

Such language can never be applied to either the coming district superintendent or pastor of Centenary church.

"Blest Be the Tie That Binds," was then sung and Rev. W. E. Spoonts, D. D., offered prayer. Mrs. Hartmann then sang in an accomplished manner a solo entitled, "God of Our Fathers." Rev. W. R. Leslie the new pastor of Centenary church, was then introduced and led in reading from the psalter after which E. E. Crabtree was introduced and spoke for the business men. Of all the remarks made a short outline is offered:

Going a Source of Regret

"If there is a man in Jacksonville whom I fully appreciate and admire that man is Rev. F. A. McCarty, as a man of business, socially and in every other way. I have come to know hiw in many ways and his going hence is to me a source of sincere regret and yet I am glad too to pass on to my friends in Quincy such a man. Let me read to you a letter I wrote a banker friend in that city.

" 'By the papers I notice that the Rev. Frank A. McCarty is to be moved from Jacksonville district, where he has been a superintendent of the Methodist church, to the Vermont street church, Quincy.

" 'I do not belong to the Methodist church, but we think so much of Mr. McCarty in this town and in this bank that I am going to say to you as a friend that he is one of the best fellows ever. He is a good business man, genial, has the happy faculty of saying the right thing at the right time, antagonizes no one, and has been a safety valve for many a gathering here. Summing it up, he is a dandy good fellow. I want you to meet him and I want you to know him. As soon as I can get hold of him I am going to ask him to call upon you as soon as he gets in Quincy.

" 'Mr. McCarty is a well balanced man. A man of good judgment and a broad liberality for the weakness of others; a splendid example in the daily conduct of life; in the balance of force, always willing to assist, but never pressing; never antagonistic or causing jealousy. He is not sensational, he is not radical and he is not a reformer, but always yielding an unconscious influence for good.'

Could Always Be Depended On

"Dr. McCarty was valuable because of his good judgment, his toleration, his kindness and hearty efforts without antagonizing any one or being sensational. He had a vast and unconscious influence for good. He could always be depended on in any emergency and was valuable as a citizen. He is well balanced and possessed the rare gift of wisdom. Some people are good in some specific direction but when the stress comes they go to pieces. He says the right thing at the right time."

Concurred in Words of Appreciation

Dr. Marker spoke of Dr. McCarty as an administrator: "I shall slightly paraphrase Mark Antony's oration by saying we come not here to bury Dr. McCarty but to honor him. A flower now is worth a room full when he is dead. I fully concur in the words of appreciation which have been uttered regarding our departing friend. An administrator should be far seeing. We all have fine hind sight but how few have good foresight. An administrator must be one who can see far ahead. If he can do this he need not despair of anything. He must have energy; able to grasp everything. Some hardly move themselves but need pushing; some barely carry themselves along and others move themselves and make others go too.

"He must have enthusiasm. Some have cold hands and feet toward almost every enterprise; are fearful it cannot be done; some are only warm but warm water does not lift the lid of the kettle; it must boil; so is enthusiasm valuable only when at the boiling point. And so I feel I have described my friend McCarty.

Unite in Common Cause

Rev. A. B. Morey, D. D., spoke of Mr. McCarty as a prophet: "This is a love feast, not a meeting and it is good to see the pastors of the city thus unite in a common purpose. We are glad to see some pastors come and sorry to see them go. A prophet is a seer, one who can see things. He is sorely needed here. It takes a Billy Sunday to open our eyes and get us to work. In the Methodist church the pastors go where they are sent; in the Presbyterian church they go when called if they want to and we swallow our coffee, chew our cud and trust in God. Brother McCarty is a Methodist with Presbyterian proclivities. I met a man on a train once and he told me he had lost five dollars on me. He had heard McCarty and I preach and had bet that I was a Methodist and McCarty a Presbyterian because Mr. McCarty preached such good, solid, common sense. One day McCarty asked me to go to Meredosia and speak in the Methodist church there which I did. After the service in the morning I went down to the river and saw men at work with their nets and asked them to come to church and one of them did so. I saw him and talked with him and he said a while back a man named McCarty had preached there and he couldn't forget the sermon; it had clung to him. I asked him why he hadn't settled the matter then and finally urged him to get right with God. We prayed together and he made a decision for the right.

"Quincy needs such a man. We are told that Quincy is the devil's headquarters and it will take McCarty to oust him. He has bought a big automobile and he will need it to do big things while there. The present is a great time for preachers for the land is awake to spiritual needs just as was the case after the Civil war. Some time he will come to the Indian summer of life, as I have, and then he will enjoy himself looking back on his work with none

STREET CAR AND FORD AUTOMOBILE COLLIDE

A street car collided with a Ford touring car in East State street in front of Illinois Woman's college Monday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock. The car was driven by a woman who refused to give her name. She was driving west toward the square when the accident occurred and started to cross the track evidently to get out of the rough roadway. A west bound car operated by John Carroll was close behind her and struck the Ford broadside tearing off a tire from one of the rear wheels and bending a fender. Carroll was able to control the car and saved the woman injury. The woman blamed the poor condition of the street for the accident.

Lemons Beautify!
Strain lemon juice well before mixing and massage face, neck, arms, hands.

Here is told how to prepare an inexpensive lemon lotion which can be used to bring back to any skin the sweet freshness of which it has been robbed by trying atmospheric conditions. Wind-chafed roughness, tan and redness are warded off and those tell-tale lines of care or of age are softened away.

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quarter pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands, and see for yourself.—Adv.

GIANTS SUSPEND CAPTAIN HERZOG

New York, Sept. 17—President H. Hempstead of the New York National league announced today that he had suspended Captain Herzog for refusing to accompany the team on the recent trip to Boston, altho informed by Manager McGraw that he would not be asked to play if he did not feel equal to doing so.

Last April when the Giants were entraining for Philadelphia Herzog slipped and fell injuring the base of his spine so he was unable to play for some time. Recently Herzog claimed officials of the New York club promised to allow him to rest and recuperate, just as soon as the series of double headers with the Philadelphia team was completed at the Polo grounds. He is now at his home at Ridgely, Md., and says his medical advisers assert it would be "injurious for him to play for some time."

In concluding a statement on the case President Hempstead said:

"The day before going to Boston on the last trip, Herzog notified us he would not go with the team. Manager McGraw told him he need not play if he did not feel equal to it, but that he needed him along with the team, notwithstanding which Player Herzog did not accompany the team and nothing was ieft to do but suspend him."

A case similar to that of Herzog also has arisen in the local club of the American League which today indefinitely suspended Third Baseman J. Franklin Baker for alleged insubordination. Baker had requested permission to visit his farm in Maryland last Sunday but was told he had been advertised to appear in an exhibition game in Brigeport, Conn., that day. Instead of reporting Sunday with the other players Baker is said to have gone to Maryland. Upon his appearance at the Polo Grounds today he was ordered to the bench by Manager Donovan and tonight the club announced that he had been indefinitely suspended.

TEARING OUT STALLS IN FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The firemen were busy yesterday tearing out the horse stalls in the fire department. The space and hallway formerly used on account of the horses will be floored to correspond with the remainder of the main floor and will give much needed additional space for storage of reserve apparatus. Other changes will be made in the room but as yet they have not definitely been decided upon.

NEW BOILER FOR OPERA HOUSE BLOCK

Bernard Gause had a force of men at work yesterday making preparation to install a new boiler in the heating plant of the Opera House block. The old boiler will be removed and the new one put in the same space. The work of installation is rather difficult as the stone flagging in the walk must be removed before the work can be done.

NEW YORK KEEPS ITS PACE IN NATIONAL

Contest Proves a Pitching Duel Between Schupp and Douglas, but Cub Twirler is Unable to Go Thru With It.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—New York kept its pace in the National League pennant race today by shutting out Chicago 5 to 0 in the first game of the series. The game was a pitching duel between Schupp and Douglas, but the latter was unable to go thru with it, while the former kept the locals' hits scattered and was backed with fine support, three double plays aiding him materially.

The feature play of the day was in the ninth inning. After one out, Zeider singled, Deal followed with a drive to left, Burns ran almost into the fence, made a great catch and threw to Smith. Zeider was almost to third base. He started back to first and Smith's throw drew Holke off the base, both Zeider and Holke thought the side had been retired. Zeider started for the bench and several of the visiting players rushed after Holke, who ran back to first and completed the double play.

IDEAL WEATHER TURNS CORN DOWNWARD

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Corn slid downward today, influenced mainly by ideal weather for maturing the season's crop. Prices altho steady at the close were 1⅛ to 1⅞c net lower at $1.15⅜ to $1.15½ December and $1.12½ to $1.12⅞@$1.12¾ May. Oats finished half to 1⅛c off. In provisions the outcome ranged from 25c decline to an advance of 5c. General selling of corn started as soon as trading began but profit-taking by shorts assumed considerable volume and brought a fair upturn from the low point of the day as the session reached an end.

Oats sympathized with the weakness of corn. Arrivals of wheat showed a notable enlargement, especially in the northwest, Duluth and Minneapolis getting 809 carloads as against 262 a week ago.

Gossip was current that neutrals would obtain no more American wheat for some time.

Provisions showed some vrmness but finally fell under influence of the decline in corn.

STOCKS UNDERGO ANOTHER BREAK

Recent Marking Down of Prices Attracts no Investment Buying of Consequence—Renewal of Liquidation Evident Among High Grade Issues

New York, Sept. 17.—Another sharp break in stocks resulted today from resumption of selling conduted at times on a rather large scale. Recent marking down of prices attracted no investment buying of consequence. Renewal of liquidation was evident among high grade issues. Professional operators were distisnctly bearish. Traders on the short side met with little opposition and the downward sweep was carried in many instances to new low prices. Toward the close the movement was reversed on short covering, and the losses of one to three points were reduced considerably in the late dealings. Total sales were 690,000 shares.

Some of the heaviest professional selling was in the steel group, Bethlehem Steel broke badly to a new low figure with a decline of seven points to 93⅜. New low points also were reached by United tSates Steel which was depressed 3⅜ to 103¾ and by Midvale. The coppers also yielded to pressure, and Utah, Inspiration and Smelting were forced down three points or more. Further marked weakness appeared in the shipping shares.

In the railroad list St. Paul was again conspicuously weak selling off 3¼ to a new low quotation of 56¼. Reading gave way under bear pressure to 77¾, and Norfolk also reached the lowest price of the movement. Bonds were heavy. Total sales (par value) $3,250,000. Liberty bonds sold at 99.98 to 100. United tSates coupon 2s lost half and United tSates coupon 4s advanced ¼ on call. Panama 3s coupon rose four points.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. SPEAK WORDS OF PRAISE FOR DR. F. S. M'CARTY to dictate to him. May he enjoy a rich blessing."

Rev. M. L. Pontius spoke of Mr. McCarty as a brother:

"It is not often we close our church thus in the fall but my people were cordially willing to unite in this service. When a man was closing a twelve years successful pastorate one said of him that he was a kingdom man and so is our brother. His kind, genial, hearty manner, his whole souled ways endear him to all. During the twelve years I have known Brother McCarty I have found him ever the same, cordial, whole souled, with a Christ-like spirit. Our Lord chose twelve followers and from them three for the inner circle. He did not organize them into a church nor give any one of them any special power or commission or peculiar function but bade them all to love one another and be brothers as I can truly say our brother has followed that command. (The speaker recited a beautiful poem, "If I knew you and you knew me".) We tender our brother our best wishes, our prayers and bid him Godspeed in his new work."

Resolutions Adopted

At this point Dr. Harker asked Mrs. McCarty to take a front seat and placing Dr. McCarty beside her he offered the following resolutions which were adopted by a rising vote and a chautauqua salute:

Jacksonville, Ill., Sept. 15, 1917.

In appreciation of Rev. Dr. Francis Asbury McCarty on the occasion of his leaving the Superintendency of the Jacksonville District to go to the Vermont Street church at Quincy, Illinois:

With sincere regret we receive the action of the Illinois Annual Conference transferring Rev. F. A. McCarty from the superintendency of the Jacksonville district to the Vermont Street church at Quincy, Illinois.

Dr. McCarty came to Jacksonville in 1908, and in the nine years of his service here has endeared himself to the entire community so that his leaving is felt both as a personal and a community loss.

He was for four years pastor of Centenary church. His pastorate was marked by the high quality of his work in the pulpit, preaching strong and helpful sermons; and also by his faithful pastoral work, getting close to the hearts of his people, and entering with love and sympathy into their personal and family problems.

Was Inspiration To All

His promotion to the superintendency of the Jacksonville district in 1912 while a loss immediately to Centenary church, was a gain to the city and the district. To this task he brought the same qualities of energy, efficiency, pulpit ability, and personal friendliness and sympathy so that his visits have been increasingly welcome in every charge in this district. His work has helped forward every interest of the church, and he has been a friend and personal inspiration to all whom he has touched.

Dr. McCarty has been equally helpful and happy in his relations to other churches, and to every good interest of the community. In the Woman's College he has always taken special interest, and he has given himself to it without reserve. He has been a leader in all Young Men's Christian association movements, in Red Cross work, and has been interested and welcome at all meetings of fraternal organizations, clubs and societies. In fact, wherever there has been any movement for church or community benefit, there has Mr. McCarty been, ready and efficient and happy.

In all his work and influence in the community he has been greatly assisted by Mrs. McCarty, who has been a helpmate not alone in the happy relations of their home, but who has been sympathetic and helpful in all his community work. It is but just to say that Dr. McCarty could not have accomplished the good work he has done except for the quiet and many times forgotten, but no less strong and effective co-operation and assistance of Mrs. McCarty.

We also appreciate the faithful and efficient service of the sister in the home, Miss Etta McCarty, who has been so ready and helpful in every department of church work.

Going Will Be a Great Loss

Their going from Jacksonville will be a great loss, and we hereby express appreciation of their work and their personality and our heartiest good wishes for their future. We shall miss them greatly. But we are thankful that we have had them with us so many years, and that they are not going so far away that we may not still see them and enjoy them frequently.

We pray the Father's blessing upon these dear friends in their new home and their new work. They will go with the consciousness of duty well done here, and that thousands of friends are hoping and praying for their continued well being and success.

We commend them to Vermont street church and to Quincy and congratulate the people of that community on this addition to the forces among them working for righteousness.

When Dr. McCarty was introduced he was received with loud applause and was visibly affected. He said in part:

"I cannot fully express my feelings on this occasion nor tell you how much I appreciate the honor done me and the love shown me. I do not want to say too much about going away for I may want to come back some day. I do not take this tribute personally but as an interest we all feel in the kingdom of God. I appreciate what Brother Crabtree said but a man is a poor specimen who would not be liked by him. I have received inspiration from the Woman's College, from Dr. Morey and from many others. I appreciate the good words of Brother Pontius and the love of the Jacksonville business men and hope to find similar ties in Quincy. I do feel a little troubled lest Brother Pletcher be again on my trail. He followed me at Gibson City and now after a year he follows me in my position and then to end matters up he came and rented my house. I can recommend both he and Brother Leslie for the positions they are to occupy. I am glad that Brother Leslie is coming to Jacksonville. A lady once remarked that she was sorry he was unmarried but I am sure he has come to a place which will make that all right; at least one preacher has found it so lately. (Applause.)

I look forward with hope and courage to the revival meetings that are to begin soon and am sorry I can't be here to take part in them. We get from such meetings just what we put into them and I pray for God's blessing on them. I am sorry to leave you and dread to come back for you will expect too much. Now don't expect too much when we return. I am deeply grateful to you all for this cordial manifestation of love and appreciation and wish only that I might be more worthy of the pleasant things you have said to me tonight. I shall ever treasure as a choicest possession your esteem for me and may the Father of mercies bless you abundantly."

Mr. Theobold said they were indebted to Brother Madden for the arrangement of the excellent program.

The benediction by Rev. R. B. Wilson ended the formal exercises and then many pressed forward to take the departing brother by the hand and show their esteem for him.

M. E. Ladies Aid Entertain in Honor of Rev. W. P. Bowman, Soon to Leave for Hopedale—Good Sermon at Christian Church — News Notes.

Concord, Sept. 17 — A farewell reception was given Rev. and Mrs. W. P. Bowman on Saturday evening in the church parlors by the Ladies Aid of the M. E. church. Oysters coffee and other appetizing refreshments were served and a pleasant social time was enjoyed by all present. Brother Bowman has made many friends here in the three years pastorate, and will go to Hopedale, with the kind regards of Concord's citizens regardless of church membership.

Mrs. Bowman went to Chandlerville on Sunday by auto where she will make a short visit during the "moving" and Brother Bowman expects to leave Tuesday.

Minister C. G. Cantrell had two good meetings at the Christian church on Sunday. No preaching at the other churches. The theme for the evening discourse was: "God's Likeness in Man". Brother Cantrell seemed to be in his best preaching humor, and handled his topic in an able and happy manner, and was listened to with close attention. He announced the meeting to begin Sunday, Sept. 30th. A lady singer will lead the music.
